

DEPARTMENT OF TAMIL

Department Profile:

Tamil is one of the most ancient classical languages in the world, with a long literary history that cannot be precisely dated. The variety and quality of classical Tamil literature have led to it being described as "one of the greatest classical Tamil traditions and literatures of the world. "we can speak volumes about its antiquity, legacy, beauty, nuances, and rich tradition.

The department of Tamil has been functioning since the establishment of the college in 1997 as a language department. To improve the linguistic skills and literature knowledge of Tamil among students, the B.A.Tamil program was introduced in 2005. Many seminars and conferences are frequently organized by great Tamil scholars and eminent professors. we are creating awareness about the importance of the Tamil language among students and encouraging them to enroll.
